Except for the for the lien against the Property created by the imposition of property taxes by the CAB and other taxing jurisdictions pursuant to Section 32-1-1202, C.R.S., all liens for unpaid Fees and Charges shall to the fullest extent permitted by law, have priority over all other liens of record affecting the Property and shall run with the Property and remain in effect until paid in full. All liens contemplated herein may be foreclosed as authorized by law at such time as the CAB in its sole discretion may determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the lien policies and procedures set forth herein shall be implemented in order to ensure an orderly and fair execution of the lien filing and collections process.

In the event payment of Fees and Charges is delinquent, the CAB Manager shall perform the procedures listed below. Any Fees and Charges which have not been paid by the applicable due date are considered delinquent:

a. Fifteen (15) Business days Past Due. A delinquent payment "Reminder Letter" shall be sent to the address of the last known owner of the Property according to the CAB Manager's records. In the event the above mailing is returned as undeliverable, the CAB Manager shall send a second copy of the Reminder Letter to: (i) the Property; and (ii) the address of the last known owner of the Property as found in the real property records of the Arapahoe County, Colorado Assessor's office (collectively the "Property Address"). The Board shall determine whether to authorize the CAB Manager's referral of any such Delinquent Account to the CAB's Covenant Enforcement Counsel (the "Covenant Enforcement Counsel"). If the amount owing on the Delinquent Account is less than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), the CAB Manager shall continue to monitor the Delinquent Account until the amount owing on such account is Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or greater and use reasonable efforts to resolve the delinquency. If the Board determines not to authorize the CAB Manager to refer a Delinquent Account to Covenant Enforcement Counsel, the CAB Manager shall continue to monitor the Delinquent Account and use reasonable efforts to resolve the delinquency. At the time of such referral, the CAB Manager shall provide Covenant Enforcement Counsel with copies of all notices and letters sent and a copy of the most recent ledger for the Delinquent Account.

4.3 Covenant Enforcement Counsel Procedures. Upon referral of a Delinquent Account from the CAB Manager, Covenant Enforcement Counsel shall perform the following:

ARTICLE 6. WAIVER OF INTEREST AND COSTS OF COLLECTIONS

6.1 Waiver of Interest. The CAB Manager and Covenant Enforcement Counsel shall each have authority and discretion to waive or reduce portions of the Delinquent Account attributable to Interest. Such action shall be permitted if either the CAB Manager or Covenant Enforcement Counsel, in its discretion, determines that such waiver or reduction will facilitate the payment of the penalties due. Notwithstanding, if the cumulative amount due and owing the CAB on the Delinquent Account exceeds One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), neither the CAB Manager nor Covenant Enforcement Counsel shall have any authority to waive or reduce any portion of the Interest. In such case, the person or entity owing in excess of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) shall first submit a request for a waiver or reduction, in writing, to the CAB, and the CAB shall make the determination in its sole discretion.

6.2 Waiver of Delinquent Penalties and Costs of Collections. Neither the v Manager nor Covenant Enforcement Counsel shall have the authority to waive any portion of delinquent penalties or Costs of Collections. Should the Property owner desire a waiver of such costs, she/he shall submit a written request to the CAB, and the CAB shall make the determination in its sole discretion.

6.3 No Waiver of Future Interest. Any waiver or reduction of Interest or other costs granted pursuant to Sections 6.1 and 6.2 hereof shall not be construed as a waiver or reduction of future Interest, or as the promise to waive or reduce future Interest. Nor shall any such waiver or reduction be deemed to bind, limit, or direct the future decision-making power of the CAB, CAB Manager, or Covenant Enforcement Counsel, whether related to the Property in question or other properties within the CAB's service area.

ARTICLE 7.

OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD

7.1 Opportunity to be Heard. Individuals who receive any notice or demand pursuant to these Policies and Procedures may request a hearing in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, or in the alternative, may elect to follow the Alternative Dispute Resolution procedures set forth in the Covenants.

7.2 Hearing Process. The hearing and appeal procedures established by this Article shall apply to all complaints concerning the interpretation, application, or enforcement of the Covenants, as each now exists or may hereafter be amended.

a. Complaint. Complaints concerning the interpretation, application, or enforcement of the Covenants must be presented in writing to the CAB Manager, or such representative as he or she may designate. Upon receipt of a complaint, the CAB Manager or designated representative, after a full and complete review of the allegations contained in the complaint, shall take such action and/or make such determination as may be warranted and shall notify the complainant of the action or determination by mail within fifteen (15) business days after receipt of the complaint. Decisions of the CAB Manager which impact the CAB financially will not be binding upon the CAB unless approved by the Board of Directors of the CAB at a special or regular meeting of the CAB.

b. Hearing. In the event the decision of the CAB Manager or his representative is unsatisfactory to the complainant, the complainant may submit to the CAB a written request for formal hearing before a hearing officer (“Hearing Officer”), which may be a member of the Board of Directors or such other Person as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. Such request for a formal hearing must be submitted within twenty (20) business days from the date written notice of the decision of the CAB Manager or designated representative was mailed.

Upon receipt of the request, if it be timely and if any and all other prerequisites prescribed by these Policies and Procedures have been met, the Hearing Officer shall conduct a hearing at the CAB’s convenience but in any event not later than fifteen (15) business days after the submission of the request for formal hearing. The formal hearing shall be conducted in accordance with and subject to all pertinent provisions of these Policies and Procedures. Decisions of the Hearing Officer which impact the CAB financially will not be binding upon the CAB unless approved by the Board of Directors at a special or regular meeting of the CAB.

c. Rules. At the hearing, the Hearing Officer shall preside, and the hearing shall be recorded. The complainant and representatives of the CAB shall be permitted to appear in person, and the complainant may be represented by any Person (including legal counsel) of his or her choice.

The complainant or his or her representative and the CAB representatives shall have the right to present evidence and arguments; the right to confront and cross-examine any Person; and the right to oppose any testimony or statement that may be relied upon in support of or in opposition to the matter complained of. The Hearing Officer may receive and consider any evidence which has probative value commonly accepted by reasonable and prudent Persons in the conduct of their affairs.

The Hearing Officer shall determine whether clear and convincing grounds exist to alter, amend, defer, or cancel the interpretation, application, and/or enforcement of the Policies and Procedures that are the subject of the complaint. The Hearing Officer's decision shall be based upon evidence presented at the hearing. The burden of showing that the required grounds exist to alter, amend, defer, or cancel the action shall be upon the complainant.

d. Findings. Subsequent to the formal hearing, the Hearing Officer shall make written findings and an order disposing of the matter and shall mail a copy thereto to the complainant not later than fifteen (15) business days after the date of the formal hearing.

e. Appeals. In the event the complainant disagrees with the findings and order of the Hearing Officer, the complainant may, within fifteen (15) business days from the date such findings and order were mailed, file with the CAB a written request for an appeal thereof to the Board of Directors. The request for an appeal shall set forth with specificity the facts or exhibits presented at the formal hearing upon which the complainant relied and shall contain a brief statement of the complainant's reasons for the appeal. The CAB shall compile a written record of the appeal consisting of (1) a transcript of the recorded proceedings at the formal hearing, (2) all exhibits, or other physical evidence offered and reviewed at the formal hearing, and (3) a copy of the written findings and order. The CAB shall consider the complainant's written request and the written record on appeal at its next regularly scheduled meeting held not earlier than ten (10) days after the filing of the complainant's request for appeal. The CAB's consideration of the appeal shall be limited exclusively to a review of the record on appeal and the complainant's written request for appeal. No further evidence shall be presented by any Person or party to the appeal, and there shall be no right to a hearing de novo before the Board of Directors.

f. CAB Board of Directors Findings. The Board of Directors shall make written findings and an order concerning the disposition of the appeal presented to it and shall cause notice of the decision to be mailed to the complainant within thirty (30) days after the Board of Directors' meeting at which the appeal was considered. The Board of Directors will not reverse the decision of the Hearing Officer unless it appears that such decision was contrary to the manifest weight of the evidence made available at the formal hearing.

g. Notices. A complainant shall be given notice of any hearing before the CAB Manager, the hearing officer, or before the Board of Directors, by certified mail at last seven (7) business days prior to the date of the hearing, unless the complainant requests or agrees to a hearing in less time. When a complainant is represented by an attorney, notice of any action, finding, determination, decision, or order affecting the complainant shall also be served upon the attorney.

h. Costs. All costs of the formal hearing and appeal processes shall be paid by the complainant, including, but not limited to, certified mailing, transcription of the recorded proceedings, and Covenant Enforcement Counsel fees.

ARTICLE 8.
PAYMENT PLANS

8.1 Payment Plans. Neither the CAB Manager nor Covenant Enforcement Counsel shall have the authority to enter into or establish payment plans for the repayment of a Delinquent Account. Should the Property owner desire to enter into a payment plan with the CAB, such owner shall first submit a written request to the CAB and the CAB shall make the determination in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE 9.
RATIFICATION OF PAST ACTIONS

9.1 Ratification of Past Actions. All waivers and payment plans heretofore undertaken by the CAB Manager or Covenant Enforcement Counsel that would otherwise have been authorized by these Policies and Procedures are hereby affirmed, ratified, and made effective as of the date said actions occurred.

ARTICLE 10.
ADDITIONAL ACTIONS

10.1 Additional Actions. The CAB directs and authorizes its officers, staff and consultants to take such additional actions and execute such additional documents as are necessary to give full effect to the intention of these Policies and Procedures.

ARTICLE 11.
COLORADO AND FEDERAL FAIR DEBT COLLECTIONS ACTS

11.1 Acts Not Applicable. Protective covenant enforcement as described herein is not a consumer transaction and, therefore, is not subject to the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act or the Federal Fair Debt Collections Practices Act.

ARTICLE 12.
SEVERABILITY

12.1 Severability. If any term or provision of these Policies and Procedures is found to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction or by operation of any applicable law, such invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall not affect the validity of these Policies and Procedures as a whole but shall be severed herefrom, leaving the remaining terms or provisions in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 13.
SAVINGS PROVISION

13.1 Savings Provision. The failure to comply with the procedures set forth herein shall not affect the status of the Fees and Charges as a perpetual lien subject to foreclosure in accordance with law. Failure by the CAB Manager, Covenant Enforcement Counsel, or other authorized representative to take any action in accordance with the requirements as specifically provided herein shall not invalidate subsequent efforts to collect the Fees and Charges.

How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. Further, you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.
